Reading Try 1 task per day	<ul data-bbox="500 451 1417 1606" style="list-style-type: none"><li data-bbox="500 451 1417 667">• Check out the Audiobook Challenge (May 11 - 22) for the book The Terrible Two! Listen to the book (3 hrs & 22 mins long), submit a book response (drawing, poem, book cover, etc.) to Mrs. Peachey by May 22, and play the Kahoot game any time. Have fun!<li data-bbox="500 695 1417 863">• Read or listen to Scaredy Monster Rides a Bike on Epic Books. Choose 2 stuffed animals to represent the monster and the mom. Act out how the mom helps the monster learn to ride a bike.<li data-bbox="500 890 1417 1157">• Read some fiction books about animals who act like people. Think about: What makes these animal characters fun? What do they wear? Where do they live? Do they use human tools like cards or phones? How would you describe their personalities? Choose a favourite character and make a poster about them.<li data-bbox="500 1184 1417 1310">• Have a parent or family member cover up some words in a book. Read the story and try to guess the covered words. See this video for tips and tricks.<li data-bbox="500 1337 1417 1606">• Pick a story to read. Do you notice the quotation marks where the characters are speaking? Make up voices for the different characters and practice reading the story aloud or in your head using these different voices. Which voices match the characters? Are there any types of voices that wouldn't match the characters?
